We are then happy to work with you on your close date and can accommodate SMALL add-on orders after your close date at no extra charge. (Note we can't subtract rosettes once your order is underway - only add.)

After close: Submit your add-ons as a completely separate order as soon as you can. There is no charge for the first add on (as long as we know its coming) but there may be rush fees depending on order size. Fast-track shipping might also be required depending on the time line. Thank you!
